Jimmy Dunn's Shamrock Shootout Golf Classic Celebrates 13 Years of Pure Golf

Queenstown, Maryland – For more than 12 years Jimmy Dunn's Shamrock Shootout, held the day before Springtime™, has served as a competitive game of golf for industry insiders. This golf classic event brings industry colleagues from around the country to network face to face on the green.

With three of the industry's top names hosting The Shamrock Shootout Golf Classic each year. Barbara Cox-Dunn of James T. Dunn Enterprises, Bill Edwards of Hilton Hotels, and John Ponchock of IEP-MPG, make this truly a high profile networking day.

Barbara Cox-Dunn, current President of the James T Dunn Memorial Foundation and organizer of the Shamrock Shootout, has been an active driving force and major supporter of the tournament since its creation. To this day Barbara strives to make each year better than the previous by continuously working to improve ways to benefit and raise money for cancer research as well as raising money for a variety of other charities from the sponsorships of each tournament.

With over $14,000 in cash prizes given away to the top seven gross and net winning teams, this makes Jimmy Dunn's Shamrock Shootout the hospitality Industry's richest golf tournament. The Shamrock Shootout is a national recognized fund raising event within the industry with all proceeds going to the James T. Dunn Memorial Foundation.
